

questions and at the hearing before receipt of the STISC records was not consistent with her claim that she had indicated that she submitted the annual declaration in May with reservations because of uncertainty as to the precise timing of her attempt to submit the declaration.

In light of above circumstances, the Commission has serious doubts (art. 13 para. (5) of Law No. 26/2022) about the compliance of the candidate with the criterion of financial and ethical integrity as per art. 8 para. (2) lit. c), para. (4) lit. a) and para (5) lit. b) of Law No. 26/2022 with respect to failure to submit a declaration on assets and personal interests for the leave period of 2014 – 2016 and an annual declaration for 2019, which have not been mitigated by the candidate.

IV. Decision

Based on art. 8 para. (1), (2) lit. c), para. (4) lit. a) and para. (5) lit. b) and art. 13 para. (5) of Law No. 26/2022, the Commission decided that the candidate does not meet the financial and ethical integrity criteria as serious doubts have been found as to the candidate's compliance with the ethical and financial integrity criteria and thus fails the evaluation.

V. Appeal and publication of the decision

Pursuant to art. 14 para. (1) of Law No. 26/2022, the candidate is entitled to appeal this decision within 5 days from receiving the decision.

Pursuant to art. 13 para. (7) of Law No. 26/2022, this decision is sent by email to the candidate and to the institution responsible for organizing the election or competition, which in the present case is the Parliament. Within 48 hours of sending the decision, the candidate does not notify the Commission of his or her refusal to publish the decision, the decision shall be published on the website of the Parliament in a depersonalized form, except for the surname and first name of the candidate that remain public. The Commission will also publish the decision on its website if the candidate does not object to publication.

This decision was adopted unanimously by all participating members of the Commission.
